Let's face it: this generation is increasingly not waking up Sunday morning thinking, what's a great church I can go to today? Part of the problem is that for too long we've made church mostly about Christians doing spiritual stuff on Sundays. Of course, we love our Sundays, but we should be even more excited about our Mondays, because on those days God has positioned us in shop fronts, in salons, in classrooms, in playgroups, on building sites, and in boardrooms where we can engage with those who don't yet know Him. Church must be less about us and more about others. We should be empowering Christians to act as Christ in their communities Monday through Saturday. That's why Christians should be waking up on Mondays declaring, "Thank God it's Monday!" In this thought-provoking book, Paul Bartlett encourages us that can have a huge influence in our community, across our town or city, and throughout the nation... and it starts on Monday.

Monday = A God-given opportunity to begin again. The message is worth keeping top of mind as every single Monday gives us a chance for new opportunities. But strangely, everyone celebrates the end of the workweek by exclaiming, "TGIF!" Larry Dickman, a salesman, former part-time pastor, and motivational speaker turns that logic on its head with this homage to taking pride in work. He highlights how every Monday gives
